GOLDEN PROMISE MALT

Discover the cultural significance of Golden Promise, a malt that echoes through the ages with its deep ties to our Scottish heritage. Known for its sweet richness and full-flavored profile, Golden Promise is a symbol of our commitment to Scottish roots. Cultivated over 50 years ago when our maltings were first established in the Highlands, it was the sole variety chosen by Scottish growers. Perfect for crafting IPAs, Scotch, and English ales, Golden Promise embodies the enduring legacy of Scottish malt, a journey that started in the heart of the Highlands and continues to captivate brewers worldwide.
